COMMONS—

THE QUEEN'S SPEECH

The QUEEN'S SPEECH having been reported by Mr. Speaker; An humble Address thereon moved by Mr. A. R. D. ELLIOT (the Motion being seconded by Mr. SAMUEL SMITH) Feb 5, 284] 40

Amendt. at the end of the twelfth paragraph, to insert "but we humbly direct Her Majesty's attention to the want of success which has so far attended the attempts of Her Majesty's Ministers to place the affairs of Egypt on a sound footing, either as regards the reconstruction of its Government, the re-organization of justice, the satisfactory adjustment of its finances, or the tranquillity and security of its frontier provinces; and we humbly submit to Her Majesty, that the course which Her Majesty's Ministers have pursued has tended to weaken the authority of the Native Government, without providing any adequate substitute, and that such a course is fraught with danger to Egypt, and tends indefinitely to postpone the establishment of a state of things in which the withdrawal of Her Majesty's Forces will be possible; while it dangerously increases the responsibilities and liabilities of this Country both towards Egypt itself and towards the Powers of Europe; and, further, we humbly express our opinion that no measures will be effective for attaining the objects of Her Majesty's Policy in Egypt, and providing for the improvement and security of that country, unless they are founded on a distinct recognition by Her Majesty's Ministers of the obligations which they have incurred by their intervention in the administration of Egyptian Affairs" (Mr. 284] Bourke), 58; Question put, "That those words be there inserted;" A. 20, N. 77; M. 57 (D. L. 1)

. Main Question again proposed, 77

Amendt. at the end of the thirteenth paragraph, to insert, "That this House, while appreciating the importance of the subjects to which attention is invited in Her Majesty's Gracious Speech from the Throne, is of opinion that the depressed condition of Commerce and Agriculture demands prior attention" (Mr. Mac Iver); Question, "That those words be there inserted," put, and negatived

. Main Question again proposed, 83; Moved, "That the Debate be now adjourned" (Mr. A. J. Balfour); after short debate, Question put, and agreed to; Debate adjourned

Notice of Amendment, Mr. Labouchere; Question, Mr. Ashmead-Bartlett; Answer, Mr. Speaker Feb 6, 96

. Debate resumed [Second Night] Feb 6, 123; after debate, Moved, "That the Debate be now adjourned" (Mr. Anderson); after further short debate, Motion agreed to; Debate further adjourned

. Debate resumed [Third Night] Feb 7, 203

Amendt. in line 58, after "arrangements," to insert "Humbly to assure Her Majesty of the satisfaction with which we have learnt the intention of Her Majesty's Ministers to present to Parliament a Bill to enable them to give effect to a Resolution passed in this House on the 11th July 1883:

"And humbly to assure Her Majesty that precedence over the measures mentioned in Her Majesty's Gracious Speech from the Throne will be given by us to that Bill when it reaches this House, so as to secure that adequate steps may be taken to prevent the importation into this Country of animals suffering from foot and mouth disease without further delay" (Mr. Chaplin); Question proposed, "That those words be there inserted;" after long debate, Question put; A. 200, N. 251; M. 51

. Div. List, A. and N., 261

New Rules of Procedure—Rule 2 (R. & O. 67A.)
The noble Lord is bound to produce a written Notice setting forth the matter of urgent public importance to which he alludes, [284] 101
Mr. Chaplin having moved the Adjournment of the House under Rule 2, New Rules of Procedure — matter Egypt (Events in the Soudan)—Sir John Hay addressed the House——
Mr. Speaker, interrupting, said: I must remind the right hon. and gallant Gentleman that he is going beyond the question of urgent importance, to ask which the adjournment has been moved, [284] 493

MOTIONS AND QUESTIONS
A Return which is substantially the same as that which has already appeared upon the Paper, and has been negatived, cannot be moved for, [284] 762

Motions and Notices of Motion
Order of Business—Whether Motions of which Notice had been given, and whose precedence had been fixed by ballot, would not, under circumstances stated, lose that precedence. Mr. Speaker: I apprehend, in that case, those Members whose Notices of Motions could not come on would have to renew the Notices of Motion. Mr. Anderson asked if that did not mean that precedence just secured by the ballot would be lost? Mr. Speaker: Yes, [284] 39, 40

AMENDMENTS TO QUESTIONS

The Address

Mr. Speaker is of opinion that an Amendment on the Address of which Lord Randolph Churchill proposed to give Notice would be out of Order, [284] 99

Mr. Speaker—If the Address has been agreed to, and the Mover of the Address presents himself at the Bar on any given day—whether a day on which Notices of Motion or Orders of the Day have precedence or not—it is my duty, according to the immemorial practice of the House, to call upon him to bring up the Report; and upon that a Debate might arise, [284] 318

Amendments on Report of Address—Mr. A. J. Balfour asked whether it would be in Order, on the Report of the Address, to re-introduce an Amendment similar in substance to that which had been introduced to the Address itself and negatived? Mr. Speaker said: On the Report it would be open to move an Amendment; but he was not prepared to say that the precise terms moved and negatived on this occasion could be brought forward on the Report, [284] 86

On Report of the Address the whole policy of the Government may be debated to any length the House should think proper, [284] 86

RULES OF DEBATE

An hon. Member, in seconding a Motion for Adjournment, must confine himself to that Motion, [284] 84

A noble Lord having moved the adjournment of the debate, it is not competent for an hon. Member to discuss the Main Question, [284] 661

An hon. Member who has seconded the Motion for the adjournment of the debate has exhausted his right to speak, [284] 274

Speaking a second time—Mr. Sheil said he rose to a point of Order. Mr. Speaker—The hon. Member has already spoken—he cannot speak again, [284] 559

Questions and Answers

Notice—I understand the noble Lord to ask a Question of the Under Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs; and the Under Secretary, acting entirely within his own right and discretion, stated his desire to have Notice of the Question. Upon that, it seems to me the matter should drop, [284] 678

Question on Question, [284] 1598, 1599

A Member, in asking a Question of which he had given Notice, proceeded to ask a further Question. Mr. Speaker: It is quite obvious that this is a new Question, of which Notice should be given. When the House is engaged in "Questions" is not the time for giving Notice, [284] 1600

A Question referring, not to a matter of fact, but to an opinion, is irregular, [284] 429

I must remind the hon. Member for Dungarvan that in putting such Questions he is trifling with the House, [284] 896

Argumentative Questions—The hon. Member may ask a Question. He is not entitled to argue the matter, [284] 1002

Mr. Speaker declines to interpose between the hon. Member who put the Question and the House, [284] 885

The hon. Member cannot state anything except what would make his Question plain. He cannot enter into debate, [284] 1006

Un-Parliamentary Language—An hon. Member, having spoken of an Irish Peer as a "bigoted, malevolent, young puppy," Mr. Macartney rose to Order. Is it competent for a Member of this House to apply to the Member of another House the words just used? Mr. Speaker: The hon. Member is responsible for his own words. I am here to give my opinion on points of Order. If I were called upon to give an opinion on a matter of taste it would be a different thing, [284] 1494

The observation which I think fell from the hon. Member for Northampton was that he charged Members opposite to him with wasting time. I cannot say that such an observation is altogether out of Order. It is an observation that has been frequently made in this House, and it has not been confined to one side of the House or the other, [284] 457

Mr. Labouchere: I rise to Order. I gather from the noble Lord that he referred to my constituents as a "mob." I ask you, Sir, whether that was a proper and decorous word to use towards any constituency in this country? Mr. Speaker: I am not prepared to say that the observations of the noble Lord were out of Order, [284] 1572

Reference to Speeches in the House of Lords in this Session—Lord Randolph Churchill—You, Sir, will have noticed that the Prime Minister, in responding to the Question of the right hon. Baronet, quoted verbatim from speeches delivered by Lord Salisbury and Lord Granville in the House of Lords on the day of the opening of Parliament. I wish to ask you, on the point of Order, whether I shall be in Order in quoting verbatim from speeches of Lord Granville delivered on the same day with reference to Tewfik Pasha, Khedive of Egypt, and the charges which I made against the Khedive; and whether I shall be justified in quoting those words verbatim and exposing their scandalous inaccuracy?—Mr. Speaker: It occurs to me that the cases are very different. The right hon. Gentleman, in order to make his answer plain to the Question put to him, was called upon, it appears to me, to read or recite the documents in question, [284] 312

Lord Randolph Churchill: I wish to know whether a private Member of Parliament has not the same facility for quoting the language of the Peer that the Prime Minister has for quoting the language of the Foreign Secretary?—Mr. Speaker: I have only to say that it is my duty to carry out the Rules and Practice of this House, and I shall adhere to my duty. In doing that I make no dis-

STANDING COMMITTEES

Revived by Sessional Resolution—The Marquess of Hartington having moved that the Resolutions of 1st December, 1882, relating to the constitution and proceedings of Standing Committees be revived—Mr. Warton asked if there was any precedent for reviving a Resolution of the House in the manner proposed? Should not the Committees be brought before the consideration of the House one by one?—Mr. Speaker: No doubt there are many precedents for such a proceeding, [284] 788

The Resolution, if agreed to, would only have operation during the present Session, [284] 819, 820

The Half-past Twelve o'clock Rule — Mr. Speaker said, he considered that Reports of Bills from Standing Committees were now within the operation of the Half-past Twelve o'clock Rule; and, therefore, the Amendment of the hon. Member to make the Half-past Twelve o'clock Rule apply to Grand Committees was quite superfluous, [284] 1733

Select Committees — Nomination—Notice — Kitchen and Refreshment Rooms Committee —One name not to be substituted for another without Notice—Mr. Molloy proposed to omit the name of Mr. Maurice Brooks, and that in its place be substituted —— Mr. Speaker: The hon. Member will not be in Order in moving another name. If the House thought proper to strike out the name of Mr. Maurice Brooks, it would be open to the hon. Member, or any other hon. Member, to move another name on another day, [284] 563

Stockton Carrs Railway Bill — Mr. Dodds, Member for Stockton, having sent to several Members of the House a circular requesting their attendance to support the Third Reading of this Bill, the subject was brought before the House as matter of Privilege—Mr. Speaker thought that a question of Order having arisen, the proper time to raise the question would be when the Bill was taken, [287] 4, 6, 7, 609

Mr. Sexton: Before you put the Question Mr. Speaker, I would ask, as a point of Order, whether it is in accordance with the usage of the House that a Motion of Privilege should be met otherwise than by a direct negative?—Mr. Speaker: There is no Rule applying to questions of Privilege. The Amendment is perfectly in Order, [287] 22

PRIVILEGE

Sir John Hay having said that on Tuesday, June 10, he proposed to give the House an opportunity of expressing its gratitude to the troops employed in the war in the Soudan by moving a Vote of Thanks to them —Sir Wilfrid Lawson asked whether the Motion of the right hon. and gallant Member would come on as a question of Privilege at half-past 4, or whether it would have to take its chance like an ordinary Motion?—Mr. Speaker said, precedence would not be accorded to a Motion of the kind made by a private Member, [288] 434

Southampton Corporation (Cemetery, &c.) Bill—This Bill having been read a second time under circumstances stated, it was moved that the proceedings be null and void, and that the Bill be read a second time to-morrow.—After debate—Mr. Speaker said that, after the explanation which had been given of the peculiar circumstances of the case, he might fairly put the Question to the House, [284] 1321

Irrelevancy—I hope the hon. Member (Mr. Ashmead-Bartlett) will not oblige me to call further attention to the irrelevancy of his speech. I have done so twice; and if I have occasion to call him to Order a third time, I shall be obliged to resort to other measures, [290] 50, 51, 52

Mr. Cavendish Bentinck having complained that the hon. Member for East Cornwall (Mr. Borlase) had in The Western Morning News imputed to him that he had spoken of "temperance advocates" as hypocrites—and Mr. Borlase, in reply, stating that he had heard Mr. Cavendish Bentinck say, conversationally, in the House, "Those hypocrites, the teetotallers, have got a Sunday Closing Bill to-day for Cornwall, or some such place" —Mr. Speaker intervened and acted as mediator in the misunderstanding, [288] 1184

Order—"The Permission of the House"—Mr. Warton wished to know whether the expression generally used "the permission of the House" meant in such a case the unanimous wish of the House, or whether the Question could be put if any Member or Members objected?—Mr. Speaker: It does not mean the unanimity of the House, but the general pleasure of the House, [291] 1331

SITTING AND ADJOURNMENT OF THE HOUSE

Municipal Elections (Corrupt, &c. Practices) Bill. Motion made, and Question proposed, "That the Bill be now considered." Several alternative Motions for the Adjournment of the Debate, and of the House, having been made and negatived, original Question again proposed. Motion made, "That the Debate be now adjourned."—(Mr. Hicks.) Whereupon Mr. Speaker, having stated his opinion that the Motion was an abuse of the Forms of the House, put the Question forthwith, [289] 1708

The New Rules of Procedure (Motion for Adjournment [67A]—Mr. Parnell asked whether the New Rules would preclude, on the Motions for Adjournment, the discussions which formerly took place, or whether this would be limited to the immediate Question? Mr. Speaker said: There will be no change made in that respect by the New Rules, [286] 1815

Wednesday Sittings

Mr. Macfarlane asked under what Standing Order or other Rule of the House is an hon. Member who comes in at 12 on Wednesdays precluded from going out again until a quorum is made? Mr. Speaker said: It is under no Standing Order that the doors are closed; but under the long-established practice of the House, [290] 231

The New Rules of Procedure—Rule 8—The Half-past Twelve o'clock Rule—"Blocking"

The term "blocking" is a colloquial expression recognized in this House. It has been used from the Chair with the approval of the House, and the import of it is fully known to the hon. and learned Member for Bridport and to the House, [286] 1506

Mr. Firth—The Order Book shows that one Member (Mr. Warton) has blocked no fewer than 34 Bills, ranging over the whole area of the legislation proposed during the present Session. The Question I wish to ask is, whether this procedure on the part of the hon. and learned Member does or does not come within the Rule as to Obstruction; and, if not, whether there is any Rule that can be applied to a case of this sort? Mr. Speaker: In reply to the hon. and learned Member for Chelsea, I may say that I am not of opinion that the blocking of Bills, even on the scale referred to by the hon. and learned Gentleman, would bring the hon. Member who should indulge in that practice within the penalties imposed by the Standing Order for "persistently and wilfully obstructing the Business of the House." At the same time, I am bound to say that a wholesale system of throwing obstacles in the way of Bills, not out of consideration for the merits or demerits of such Bills, but from a desire to prevent the several Bills being discussed, is, in my opinion, a violation of the spirit of the Rule, and ought to be very much deprecated, [286] 892

Money Bills—East Indian Unclaimed Stocks Bill—Mr. Speaker: This being a Money Bill, the Blocking Notice will not prevent its being taken, [290] 1055

Army Annual Bill—I am of opinion that this is a Bill which does not come within the Half-past Twelve o'clock Rule; but is a Bill specially exempted from that Rule, [286] 980

MOTIONS AND QUESTIONS, AND NOTICES OF MOTION

Irregularity of Notice—The Notice, so far as it reached me, is couched in an irregular form, reflecting upon the other branch of the Legislature, [290] 691

Alteration of Notice—Priority of amended Notice. Mr. O'Brien having placed on the Paper Notice of Motion referring to the conduct of certain officials in Ireland, the Clerk at the Table, in the exercise of his duty, objected to that Notice as being of too vague and sweeping a character. Mr. O'Brien, on a subsequent day, put in an amended Notice, which was objected to on the same ground, and was informed that it would not appear on the Paper. Mr. O'Brien now complained not only that his second Notice had been objected to and refused, but that he had lost the priority which he had obtained in the ballot for his original Notice

Mr. Speaker, reading the terms of the Notice, appealed to the House whether that was a Notice which should be allowed to remain on the Order Book of the House. When the hon. Member complains that he lost priority, I have only to submit to the House whether he did not lose it by his own informality and want of observing the Rules of the House, [288] 676, 684

Postponement of Motion—If an hon. Member wishes to postpone his Motion, and there is no opposition, it will be done as a matter of course, [286] 273

Mr. Broadhurst having moved that the Order for the Second Reading of the Marriage with a Deceased Wife's Sister Bill be discharged and the Bill withdrawn, it was asked whether the Resolution in pari materiâ, of which the hon. Member had given Notice, was consistent with the Standing Order, it being identical in substance with the Bill now before the House, and Notice having been given previous to the Notice of withdrawal?—Mr. Speaker said, there was nothing informal in the Notice given by the hon. Member for Stoke, [286] 842, 843

I must point out that before another Amendment can be proposed it will be necessary to withdraw the Amendment now before the House, [289] 1162, 1164, 1168, 1186

If the Resolution of the hon. Member for South Shields (Mr. Stevenson) were first disposed of, the Amendment of the hon. Member for Glasgow (Mr. Anderson) could then be moved as an addition when the Amendment was put as a substantive Motion, [289] 667

Sir Joseph M'Kenna: I beg to ask you, Mr. Speaker, whether it is not the case that the Prime Minister may, with the leave of the House, make a statement at any time?—Mr. Speaker: Yes; that would be so, [291] 1374

Mr. Speaker: I must ask the hon. and learned Member (Mr. Warton) not to "rise to a point of Order" when there is no point of Order before the House. If he persists, I must call the attention of the House to the practice of the hon. and learned Member in rising to so-called "points of Order" when he has really nothing to bring forward, [289] 1835

On Question, "That the Municipal Elections (Corrupt, &c. Practices) Bill be now considered," Viscount Folkestone having referred to some of the clauses of the Bill, Mr. Speaker said: The noble Viscount would be out of Order in referring to the provisions of the Bill, [289] 1711

Latitude of Discussion—On the Question of Order, I have to say that the point raised by the hon. and learned Member was raised in April of last year, and was emphatically decided by my Predecessor in the Chair. His ruling was to this effect—That after the second reading, on the Motion to refer the Bill to a Standing Committee, there was not the same latitude of discussion allowed as upon the Question that the Bill be referred to a Committee of the Whole House. It is not competent—that was the effect of the ruling—to discuss the whole merits and principle of a Bill upon the Motion that it be referred to a Standing Committee, [287] 1870

The right hon. and learned Gentleman is not entitled to discuss the general Question on this Amendment ("That those words be there inserted"), [289] 1176

It is not in Order to bring forward the question of an Egyptian newspaper on the Motion that I leave the Chair, [286] 488

Speaking a second time, [291] 1349

Mr. Speaker: It is not competent to the hon. and gallant Member to move that the Bill be read a second time that day three months, having spoken on the Motion for the second reading. Colonel King-Harman said he had not spoken on that Motion. Mr. Speaker: If the hon. and gallant Member says he did not I will accept his word, [288] 640; [290] 1076, 1077

Does the hon. and learned Member rise to move the Amendment on the Paper? Mr. Warton: Yes.—Mr. Speaker: Then the hon. and learned Member has lost his right to speak. A Division took place upon it on the last occasion, [291] 1328

The hon. Member seconded a Motion for the Adjournment of the Debate; and he is not, therefore, entitled to speak, [292] 581

I wish to ask whether my hon. Friend, having seconded a Motion for the Adjournment of the Debate, is thereby precluded from speaking on the Main Question? Mr. Speaker: That is so, [292] 581

Right of Reply—The hon. Member for Sunderland (Mr. Storey) has made a substantive Motion, and is, therefore, entitled to a reply, [289] 1920

The subject being an Order of the Day, the hon. Gentleman has no right to reply. He might explain, [292] 350

Personal Explanation—The hon. Gentleman is not entitled to enter upon matters of debate. So long as he confines himself to a personal explanation he is in Order, [286] 51, 52

If the hon. Member (Mr. T. P. O'Connor) desires to ask a Question to clear up some matter which he thinks is necessary for some personal explanation affecting himself, he is at liberty to do so; but he is not at liberty to debate the matter in the manner he has been doing for some time past, [289] 1923

The hon. Member for Eye (Mr. Ashmead-Bartlett) has offered a personal explanation; and as the right hon. Gentleman the Prime Minister has answered the statement made by the hon. Member for Eye, I do not think the matter ought to go further. There is no point of Order involved, [289] 828

Reference to a former Debate—Questions—The hon. Member (Mr. Ashmead-Bartlett) is referring to a debate which took place in the present Session; and the Question, in the form in which he has put it, is out of Order. The hon. Member is clearly out of Order in referring to a previous debate of the present Session, [289] 246

Lord Randolph Churchill: I must rise to Order. The Question put down on the Paper is a verbatim quotation from a speech delivered in a debate on Friday last; and I want to know whether it is not directly contrary to the Rules of the House?—Mr. Speaker: If a verbatim report has been quoted in the Question in the manner referred to by the noble Lord, it is out of Order, [286] 745

Premature Reference to a Question—Mr. Speaker: I am sorry to interrupt the hon. Member (Dr. Cameron), who had on the Paper for that evening Notice of a Motion relating to the Crofters' Commission; but I am bound to say that if he proposes to refer to the Report of the Crofters' Commission he will be out of Order. The hon. Member for Carlow (Mr. Macfarlane) has given Notice that he will refer to it this day four weeks; and I understand this is the same subject which the hon. Gentleman would propose to take to-night; but, both on the ground that he could not anticipate his own Motion and the Motion of the hon. Member for Carlow, he will be out of Order in alluding to the Crofters' Commission, [288] 1499, 1502

Irregularity of Discussion—Mr. Speaker: I am bound to say this sort of irregular debate is entirely out of Order. If the hon. Member (Mr. Ashmead-Bartlett) will put his statement in the form of a Question he will be in Order, [289] 587

Production of Public Documents—It is an unquestionable Rule of this House that public despatches, documents, and Papers relating to public affairs should be laid upon the Table of the House if quoted by a Minister.

But in this case the right hon. Gentleman the Vice President of the Council made, I understand, no citations from any documents whatever. He merely said that he had consulted the Inspectors. The statement he made as to the result of his inquiry was made on his own responsibility, and he is under no obligation to lay any documents or Papers on the Table of the House, [286] 1022

Mr. Speaker: If the hon. Member quotes from a Report no doubt he will lay it on the Table, [285] 893

The noble Lord is undoubtedly referring to a Paper presented by the Chief Commissioner of Works—a Paper relating to his Department—which was presented by him in his quality of Minister without Notice. The right hon. Gentleman in the course which he took was only following a precedent which is constantly acted upon, [287] 648

Reference to Public Documents—Mr. Ashmead-Bartlett—I now ask you, Mr. Speaker, as a point of Order, whether I am not entitled to ask the noble Lord for a more direct answer to a Question of that kind; and, whether it is in accordance with the practice of the House that a Member should be referred vaguely to a large number of Blue Books?—Mr. Speaker: It rests entirely in the discretion of the Minister, [287] 1163

Un-Parliamentary Language

Sir Michael Hicks-Beach: I rise, Sir, to a point of Order. Just after you had announced the numbers I heard the Secretary of State for the Home Department say, from his place, "this dirty trick has not succeeded." I ask you, Sir, whether that is language that ought to be used in this House?—Mr. Speaker: Language of the kind described by the right hon. Gentleman, used publicly in this House, would undoubtedly be a great breach of the Privileges of the House. But I do not know under what circumstances the expression was used—whether it was used in private conversation, to what it was intended to refer, or whether it was intended to be heard. I, therefore, wish to draw a distinction between words used in the confidence of private conversation and words used in a debate in this House, [285] 1725

Sir Robert Peel: If the Secretary of State for the Home Department were in his place I would ask him what is the meaning of this, as he would call it, "dirty trick?"—Mr. Speaker: I think that is an expression that should not be used, and I am sure the right hon. Baronet will withdraw it.—Sir Robert Peel: It is an expression used by the Secretary of State for the Home Department himself.—Mr. Speaker: It is an expression which I thought, and said at the time, was an un-Parliamentary and an improper expression, one which I hoped would never be used again, and it was withdrawn, [292] 277

Colonel King-Harman: I wish to know, Sir, whether the noble Lord has any right to use such an offensive epithet—the famous debate, "the dirty trick debate"—in regard to a debate in this House, especially as he is aware that the expression itself was withdrawn and apologized for?—Mr. Speaker: I think the expression had better not be used, [286] 765

Her Majesty's Judges—Mr. Speaker: The hon. Member (Mr. Healy) is not in Order. He must not use language that is disrespectful to Her Majesty's Judges. He may comment upon their conduct; but he is not in Order in using language that is disrespectful towards them, [286] 1732

The hon. Gentleman the Member for Monaghan (Mr. Healy) has reached such a high level of violence throughout the whole of his speech that I feel bound to interfere. He has charged Her Majesty's Government, in language exceeding anything I have heard in this House—he has charged them with conniving at murder; and he has made a statement with reference to the Chief Secretary for Ireland which was couched in language which I conceive ought not to be used by one Member of this House to another, [287] 93, 97, 98

The word "unscrupulous" is un-Parliamentary, and ought not to be applied to any section of Members of this House. I must ask the hon. Member to withdraw it, [290] 32

The phrase made use of by the hon. Member which I spoke of as transgressing the rules of courtesy which prevail in this House was that in which the hon. Gentleman referred to the right hon. Gentleman the President of the Board of Trade as "slandering," [290] 350, 351

The word "disorderly" is relative. I think the right hon. Gentleman meant to complain of the noise which may have prevented him from being heard, [291] 43

Mr. Speaker: In reply to the hon. Baronet, I have to say that I do not think the term "seditious blasphemer" applied to a Member of this House is a proper and Parliamentary expression. I am sure the noble Lord will withdraw the expression, [288] 201

I do not think the Prime Minister will insist upon using the term "foul language," though, of course, the nature of the charge made by the noble Lord is a very serious and grave one, [290] 845

Sir H. Drummond Wolff: I read them from Hansard, because I anticipated a shuffling answer from the Government—Mr. Speaker: I must say that the last expression of the hon. Member is scarcely Parliamentary, [285] 670

Offensive Imputations—I hope that the debate will be conducted without the imputation of motives, and without personalities which are extremely painful

I hope the noble Lord (Lord Randolph Churchill) will not introduce any fresh personalities into the discussion, which has been made painful by such personalities already, [287] 1215, 1216

Mr. Healy, rising to Order, asked whether the hon. and learned Member (Mr. Meldon) was entitled to charge another hon. Member with a determination to injure the interests of the shareholders of a Company because of his (Mr. Meldon's) personal action?—Mr. Speaker said: It would be imputing motives, which I am sure the hon. and learned Gentleman would not wish to impute, [289] 1999

Mr. Speaker: I am sure the hon. Member would not mean to impute to any Member of this House that he had falsified a document. The hon. Member ought to withdraw the expression, [292] 479

Sir Michael Hicks-Beach: I prefer to believe the word of my noble Friend to that of the right hon. Baronet—Mr. Speaker: I am sure the right hon. Gentleman has unintentionally expressed a doubt as to the veracity of the right hon. Baronet, and I trust he will not persist in the use of the expression. . . . I am sure the right hon. Gentleman will withdraw any expression which implies a doubt as to the veracity of the right hon. Gentleman — Sir Michael Hicks-Beach: Most certainly, I at once follow your ruling, [290] 713

Questions and Answers

Identity of Question—If a Question be identically the same with that previously asked, and which the noble Lord declined to answer, Mr. Speaker was not prepared to say an identical Question can be repeated, [285] 877

It is not in Order to ask a Minister for his opinion, [288] 660

If the hon. Member complains that the noble Lord did not answer a Question put to him by the hon. Member, I have to say that it is within the province of any Member of the Government to decline to give an answer to any Question put to him, if he considers that course to be in the interests of the public service. A Question handed in in the ordinary form and presented to the Clerk at the Table becomes the public property of the House, and is entitled to be seen by any Member of the House, [285] 876

Argumentative Questions—Questions which involve matters of argument, or statement of opinion, are irregular. I rule that so far as this Question is based upon a statement of fact, that it is the general expression of the Scotch Members, it is irregular; the rest of the Question may be put, [286] 456

Mr. Ashmead-Bartlett having put a Question to the Secretary of State for War respecting Egypt (Events in the Soudan), was proceeding to offer some observations—Mr. Speaker said: That is not a Question; it is an inference. I cannot allow the hon. Member to argue, [290] 831

I understood the noble Lord (Lord Edmond Fitzmaurice), in reply to the Questions, to state that, in his opinion, they were of an argumentative character, and that he declined to answer them to the full extent to which they were put. In that proceeding the noble Lord is perfectly in Order, [287] 1164, 1165

The preamble of the Question contains debateable matter, and is not in Order. The hon. and learned Member who proposes to ask it ought to confine himself to asking the direct Question with which the Notice ends, [292] 109

Order—Mr. Speaker: The hon. Member (Mr. Healy) must put this statement in the form of a Question . . . The hon. Member must couch his Question in proper terms, [287] 465

Mr. Speaker: This series of Questions is becoming quite irregular. The hon. Member for the City of Cork (Mr. Parnell) is now debating the Question. A Question can be asked; but a subject cannot be debated by a series of Questions . . . I consider the terms of the Question of the hon. Member (Mr. Healy) are not respectful either to the Chair or to the House, [290] 686

Irregular Questions—It is very inconvenient, when Notices of Questions are given, that insinuations reflecting on the character of individuals should be made. I have not an opportunity of knowing the exact terms of a verbal Notice; but I have heard enough of the Question to request the hon. Member for Mallow to expunge language which he knows would be disallowed by the Clerk at the Table in a written Notice, [287] 732

Order—Irregular Questions—Mr. O'Brien—This is not the first time the Queen's College authorities gave misleading and evasive information; and I would ask the right hon. Gentleman whether it is not perfectly plain that the answer put into his mouth by the Queen's College was calculated and intended to shirk the point raised?—Mr. Speaker: I understood the right hon. Gentleman to say that he did not feel called upon to answer Questions which were purely academic. The second Question now put by the hon. Gentleman is not in Order, [287] 1841

The hon. Baronet is not entitled to answer a Question which has already been answered by a Member of the Government. He can make a personal explanation, [291] 1555

DIVISIONS

Private Bills—It is a Rule [196] of the House that no Member is entitled to vote upon any question in which he has a direct pecuniary interest. On the Second Reading of the Metropolis Water Bill Mr. Firth raised the question whether Members who were Directors of Water Companies had a right to cast their votes on this occasion against the public interest—Mr. Speaker: The question alluded to by the hon. and learned Member could only be properly raised after the Division has been taken, when it will be for the House to allow or disallow any of the votes which have been given. Afterwards, Motion made, that the vote of Mr. Coope, a Director of a Metropolitan Water Company and having a direct pecuniary interest in the question before the House, be disallowed. After debate, Question put; A. 36, N. 235; M. 199, [285] 1222, 1238

Tellers—Mr. Warton asked, on a point of Order, whether the senior Member for Hereford, having seconded the Motion, could not be compelled to be a Teller? Mr. Speaker said there was no such obligation on the hon. Member, [287] 1220

SELECT COMMITTEES

Nomination of Members—Notice—One day's Notice is all that is required in this matter. Mr. T. P. O'Connor said he should take a Division on the name of Mr. Dodds, as he wished to substitute the name of Mr. Arthur O'Connor for that of the hon. Member for Stockton—Mr. Speaker: The hon. Member must give Notice of his desire to substitute a new name, [288] 795, 796

Adjournment—I do not think I am called upon to answer theoretical Questions; but I assume, from the statement of the hon. Baronet, that a case is likely to arise immediately. In answer to the hon. Baronet, I have to say that there is no inherent right in a Member to call upon the Chairman of a Private Bill Committee to adjourn the Committee, in order that they may attend the House when a Division takes place, or for the purpose of attending a Standing Committee, [287] 758

Disclosure of Proceedings—No doubt the hon. Member has rightly stated the Rule which applies to the proceedings of Select Committees of the House of the nature to which he has referred. They are of a strictly private and confidential nature; and it is a circumstance very much to be regretted, and highly irregular, that the details of what passed in the Committee, after the room was cleared of strangers, should have been made public, [285] 1549

INSTRUCTIONS TO COMMITTEES

Notice—Mr. Speaker said, the hon. Member would not be in Order in moving an Instruction to the Committee without Notice, [289] 769

Notice—Mr. Speaker holds that a certain Instruction to the Select Committee on the Metropolitan District Railway can only be submitted after Notice has been given, [285] 1265

Mr. Courtney: I ask whether it is in Order to move an Instruction of this kind to the Committee, when the Committee is already able to give effect to the object of the Motion without such Instruction—Mr. Speaker: It would clearly be competent to the Committee to undertake this duty without Instruction from the House. It would not be proper to move in this House an Instruction to a Committee to do that which the Public Works Loans Act empowers the Committee to do, [291] 479, 480, 482

In reply to the hon. and learned Gentleman, I have to say, from the best consideration I have been able to give to the point raised, it appears to me that the subject of registration would be relevant to the Bill (Representation of the People Bill), and that, therefore, it will be competent for the Committee to deal with it. If the Committee is competent to deal with it, it will be out of Order for an Instruction to be moved, calling upon the Committee to do that which it is already empowered to do, [287] 828

Private Bills—As to the Instruction to the Committee being in the nature of a reference of a point they have already the power to deal with, I draw a distinction between a Committee on a Private Bill and Committees of this House. The Instruction to the Committee now about to be moved by the hon. Member is a mandatory and compulsory Instruction, and differs from an ordinary Instruction to Committees of the House, which is only permissive, therefore, in regard to those two points, and I am of opinion that the hon. Member is perfectly in Order, [287] 875

Dublin, Wicklow, and Wexford Railway Bill—Instruction to Committee—Mr. Mayne rose to move an Instruction to the Select Committee to which the Bill had been referred—Mr. Findlater rose to a point of Order. He wished to know whether it was competent for an hon. Member, being a Member of the Corporation of Dublin, who had petitioned against the Bill, and whose locus standi had been established, to move an Instruction to the Committee to protect the rights and interests of the Corporation of Dublin?—Mr. Speaker: Upon that point my opinion is clear—namely, that the fact of his being a member of the Corporation of Dublin does not prevent him from taking the action he is now taking, [287] 875

PUBLIC BILLS

Seconding—Cruelty to Animals Acts Amendment (No. 2) Bill. Order for Second Reading read. Motion made, and Question proposed, "That the Bill be now read a second time,"—(Lord Elcho.)—Mr. Onslow objected to the second reading. He did not know who had charge of the Bill, and he did not hear anyone move the second reading. Perhaps some Member of the Government would say who made the Motion?—Mr. Speaker: The noble Lord (Lord Elcho) raised his hat, [290] 370

Salmon (Weekly Close Time) (Ireland) Bill—Moved, "That the Bill be referred to a Select Committee."—Colonel King-Harman: I object to the Bill being referred to a Select Committee.—Mr. Healy: Is it not a disorderly practice, Mr. Speaker, when such a Motion as this is made, for the hon. and gallant Member for the County of Dublin to object to the Motion?—Mr. Speaker: The hon. and gallant Member must object by challenging a Division, [290] 1081

Notice of Amendment—Revision of Jurors and Voters Lists (Dublin County) Bill. Moved, "That the Bill, as amended, be now Considered."—Mr. Healy proposed to move a new clause.—Mr. Speaker said, the hon. Member would not be in Order in moving a new clause at that stage without Notice, [289] 1733

Mr. Healy asked whether it was regular to propose that a Bill be read a third time the same night as it had been considered?—Mr. Speaker: It is a matter for the allowance of the House. If the House wishes to allow a Bill to be read a third time the House can do so, [290] 373

Motion, "That the Bill do now pass."—Mr. Healy: It has hitherto been usual, especially in the case of great Bills, to put, after the Third Reading, the Question, "That the Bill do now pass." I wish to ask whether, if a case of this kind occurs in the future, much contention would not be saved if the Motion "That the Bill do now pass" were put from the Chair?—Mr. Speaker: The putting of the Question, after the Third Reading,

"That the Bill do now pass" has of late years fallen into desuetude, and has become practically obsolete. I do not think that it is the pleasure of the House that the putting of such a Question should be revived, [289] 1583

Money Bills

Mr. Shaw Lefevre moved that the Order for the Second Reading of the Hyde Park Corner Improvements Bill be discharged, so that the Bill might be introduced in the other House.—Mr. A. O'Connor asked if the Bill could be introduced in the House of Lords, inasmuch as it was a Money Bill?—Mr. Speaker said, it was competent for the right hon. Gentleman to take the course he proposed. Order discharged. Bill withdrawn, [287] 1451

Amendments—The hon. Member cannot move the Amendment as he proposes; the House has passed the point at which he wishes to insert his Amendment, and has omitted the subsequent words, [291] 1023

Mr. Mac Iver stated that he had that morning received from the Board of Trade a paper, with the name of the President attached to it, containing certain alternative proposals to those which appear in the Merchant Shipping Bill. Upon examining the paper, he found that it contained 42 clauses, and that it involved the withdrawal of almost the whole of the remainder of the Bill; and he asked whether the President of the Board of Trade is in Order in introducing what is substantially a new Bill; or, whether the right course would not be to move that the Order for the Second Reading of the present Bill be discharged, in order that a new Bill be introduced?—After explanation from Mr. Chamberlain, Mr. Speaker said: No formal Notice has been given, and there has been no irregularity, hitherto, in the action of the President of the Board of Trade, [288] 1541

Memoranda—A Memorandum attached to a Bill should be a plain statement of the scope of the measure, and should contain nothing in the shape of argument, [289] 1513

The fact of a Bill not having been printed is not a fatal objection. It is for the House to judge whether the fact should interfere with its further progress, [289] 1839

Private Bills

The Standing Orders—Mr. Holms proposed a series of alterations in reference to the Standing Orders applicable to Private Bills; objected to.—Mr. Speaker ruled that these proposals did not come under the Standing Orders which apply to opposed Private Bills, [291] 1347

An hon. Member would not be in Order in presenting to the House a Petition relating to a Private Bill. Petitions against Private Bills are lodged in the Private Bill Office, [292] 87

Committees—Notice—Colonel Gerard Smith moved to nominate the Select Committee on the Hull, &c. Bill.—Mr. Tomlinson said he had given Notice of an Amendment. He wished to know whether it was competent for him to propose an addition to the Members of the Committee?—Mr. Speaker replied in the affirmative; but added that it would involve the postponement of the Bill, [290] 1597

If the hon. Gentleman objects to the proposal the Bill must stand over until to-morrow. The Standing Order directed that when Notice of opposition was given a Private Bill must stand over until the following day, [291] 848

Mr. Healy wished to know whether the hon. Member (Mr. A. F. Egerton) was right in putting down "After the Second Reading of the Canal Boats Act (1877) Amendment Bill to refer the Bill to a Select Committee?" If it was in Order for an hon. Member to propose an Amendment which would only take effect in a hypothetical case, such a proceeding would surely also be in Order with regard to Amendments in Committee—Mr. Speaker: It is not a Notice in the nature of an Amendment, and therefore it was perfectly in Order—Mr. Healy said, he had always thought that no Amendment could appear on the Paper relating to a particular stage until that stage had been obtained—Mr. Speaker: It is perfectly in Order. It is the usual practice for the Motion to be put down in this way, [288] 793, 794

The regular course would be to read the Bill a second time, and then for the hon. Member to bring forward his Motion, [288] 1767

Re-commitment—Infants Bill—Order for Consideration, as amended, read. Motion made, and Question proposed, "That the Bill, as amended, be now considered" (Mr. Bryce)—Mr. Warton: I rise to Order—— Mr. Speaker: The hon. and learned Member (Mr. Bryce) is in charge of the Bill; he has a right to make the Motion—Mr. Warton: I have a right to be heard. I have given Notice of a Motion to re-commit the Bill. I have a right to be heard—Mr. Speaker: That is not the case; the hon. and learned Member is disorderly, [291] 1014

Motion, "That the Bill be re-committed in respect of a New Clause (Court may make order as to custody)." . . . Mr. Speaker: The hon. and learned Member for Bridport is entitled to raise this question. He can move to leave out the words "in respect of a New Clause," and, if the Motion is carried, he can move the general re-commitment of the Bill, [291] 1015

SUPPLY, AND WAYS AND MEANS

New Rules of Procedure—Rule 12 [425A]—Sir Stafford Northcote inquired whether it would be competent for Colonel Stanley to move a Motion of which he had given Notice on going into Committee of Supply on the Supplementary Estimates to-morrow?—Mr. Speaker: In reply to the right hon. Gentleman I have to state that the Standing Order of the 27th November, 1882, is imperative on the subject. My Predecessor in the Chair held that the New Rules provided that the Speaker should leave the Chair on Mondays and Thursdays without Question put, except on first going into Committee of Supply on the Army, Navy, or Civil Service Estimates, [285] 549

[cont.

Moved, "That this House will immediately resolve itself into Committee of Supply" (Mr. Gladstone).—Question asked—Whether it was allowable to initiate a Debate on the subject of Zululand, or any other subject, which it might seem desirable to discuss on the Motion to again set up Supply—(Mr. Gorst)—Mr. Speaker: I cannot allow that a general debate of that kind would be allowable. According to the practice of the House, it has been the custom, at any rate since 1866, to allow this Motion to be put as a purely formal Motion for the purpose of setting up Supply. . . . . It has been so generally recognized that the Motion for setting up Supply is for the convenience of the House at large, that, as I said before, as a general rule, there has been no preliminary debate upon it. Supply will be the first Order of the Day immediately it is resolved that Committee of Supply shall be set up, [290] 931, 934, 938

Rules of Debate—Sir Wilfrid Lawson: May I respectfully ask you, Mr. Speaker, whether we shall be allowed to discuss the Egyptian policy of the Government on that Vote (Supplementary Vote for Salaries and Expenses of the Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs)—Mr. Speaker: Yes; that would be in Order. The Vote is of so wide a nature that it would be permissible to go into the whole question, [292] 3

The Committee of Supply, August 2, having been interrupted for the purpose of enabling the Prime Minister to make a statement with reference to Egypt (the Conference), it was thereafter moved, "That this House will immediately resolve itself into Committee of Supply;" objected, that it was not competent for a Member of the Government to make that Motion; it was also asked whether the Standing Order as to Mondays and Thursdays was now applicable, and whether, Supply not being now the first Order, Motions could be discussed on the Question that the Speaker do leave the Chair?—Mr. Speaker said, the interruption took place with the permission of the House. He did not see anything in the interruption which had taken place to prevent the House from being precisely in the same position in which it was when it met to-day at 12 o'clock. Under those circumstances, he considered it his duty to leave the Chair without any Question being raised upon it, [291] 1531

Relevancy of Motion — Mr. Healy asked, as a point of Order, whether, on the Motion for leaving the Chair, I cannot call attention to your ruling and conduct in the Chair on a recent occasion?

Mr. Speaker: It would be establishing a very difficult and dangerous precedent if the action of a Member of this House were to be called in question without any Notice to that Member, and without the House generally being aware of the course about to be taken, and without the House being in a position to come to a decision upon the matter. The House at large was not at all aware that the hon. Member for Monaghan was going to question any ruling of mine; and I should wish respectfully to submit that any question affecting my conduct in the Chair, or any ruling given by me, should come before the House in such a way that the Whole House should be able to decide upon it, either for or against myself. The course for the hon. Member for Monaghan to adopt is to give Notice and put his Motion into a specific form before the House, so that the House at large may be able to pronounce an opinion upon it, [288] 491, 494

MISCELLANEOUS

Lord Randolph Churchill asked whether it would be in Order, on the Third Reading of the Consolidated Fund Bill, to raise the question of the position of General Gordon at Khartoum, the policy of the Government in Egypt, and generally to discuss the state of affairs in the Soudan?—Mr. Speaker: I have to say, in reply to the noble Lord, that it is my duty to settle points of Order as they arise. If the question arises I shall be prepared to settle it, [286] 616

Representation of the People Bill, Third Reading (Entry in the Votes)—Mr. Speaker explains his action in respect of the decision of the House on the Question "That the Bill be now read the third time" — namely, that "The Bill is read the third time nemine contradicente;" and a Motion being made that the entry in the Votes of the proceedings on the Third Reading of the Bill be corrected by omitting from the Votes the words "Nemine Contradicente," it was, after long debate, resolved in the negative, [289] 1561, 1583

Access to this House—The Order of 5th February is a Sessional Order and remains in force to the end of the Session, [290] 1753

Mr. Speaker refers to the sanitary condition of the House of Commons, and suggests the appointment of a small Committee of Inquiry, [290] 634
